FOUR HANDS ANNOUNCES CINDY HAMMES AS FINANCIAL CONTROLLER

AUSTIN, Texas (August 31, 2010) -- Four Hands, an Austin-based global furniture wholesaler and manufacturer, has named Cindy Hammes as financial controller.

As controller, Hammes is responsible for all accounting functions including financial audits, banking, accounts payable/receivable, payroll, insurance, taxes, and other compliance reporting. Hammes reports to Curt Welch, the company's chief financial officer.

Before joining Four Hands, Hammes served as vice president of finance at Green Builders, Inc., an Austin homebuilding and land development company. She also worked for Andrew Harper Travel, a privately-held luxury travel services company; Capital Pacific Homes, a privately-held national homebuilding company; and Deloitte and Touche, LLP. Hammes is a certified public accountant (CPA) and holds a B.S. in finance and accounting from Kansas State University.

"I'm very happy to have Cindy join the team," Welch said. "She's extremely sharp, and a great fit for the company."
