FOUR HANDS UNVEILS FRESH WEBSITE

February 22, 2011- AUSTIN, TEXAS — Four Hands has unveiled an updated website designed with a seamless view of Four Hands and improved functionality with new navigational tools. The redesign incorporates a fresh appearance in keeping with the company's trendy style direction for product. The new www.fourhands.com features a vibrant modern look, an interactive experience and tools for its customers.

Matthew Briggs, president and CEO of Four Hands, said the revamped site enriches the company's online presence. "Four Hands is the premier lifestyle home furnishings resource, the look and functionality of the new website are a better reflection of the company's positioning and its commitment to provide the best tools and resources to our customers," he said.

The new site will now become a turn-key piece of Four Hands marketing program and be used to support sales and marketing initiatives throughout the year.
